

Leap of Faith...for Rob & Erica ©

It's a leap of faith we take, when we walk down the aisle.

To a place where we hope to find happiness for a while.

It's a leap of faith we take when we make changes in our life.

We pray and we hope that our path will feel just right.

(1)

One never quite knows if the timing is right.

We look at a map and set our line of sight.

We think and we ponder and wonder where we will be

When daylight comes and we're wed happily.

(CHORUS)

(2)

Our lives quite often take twists and turns.

We go with the punches and seek to learn.

The purpose of each bump, each bend, each yield.

Sometimes it's hard to know what is real.

(Bridge)

Each moment is there for a reason,

Through a season of our lives.

Sometimes it's better to feel like a feather,

Floating and gently following the wind.

(CHORUS)

(3)

Take heed in your own advice, and follow your heart.

It's always known your path right from the start.

Believe in where you are heading, it's only a dream away.

Always remember to balance the journey with the work and play.

© Grant M. Waldman, May 6, 2003 - For Rob & Erica McLevy with love and peace.